RULES and INFORMATION: Black Powder Target Rifle Association (BPTRA) Rules apply. Rifles are falling block rifles with exposed hammers, shooting black powder or black powder substitutes with cast lead bullets. No jacketed bullets or smokeless powder. Rifles are based on rifles with a patent date of 1898 or earlier. Common rifles are Sharps, Remington Rolling Blocks, Winchester Highwalls and Stevens 44.5. Common calibers are 45-70, 45-90, 40-65 and 44-77. Any shooting position may be used to shoot the match except bench rest. Most shooters shoot prone using cross sticks for support. Each shooter will have a spotter who helps with sight adjustments and is the shooters scorekeeper. Each four-person squad has two on the firing line and two in the pits who lower the targets, mark them, and return them to the shooting position. They will also repair targets as needed and assist with replacing the target frames into the storage area after the match. Empty Chamber Indicators required and are available for loan or purchase at the match. If you have a walkie talkie, please bring them for your squad to use.

ENTRY: Advise Dick if you are attending so you can be place on a squad. Walk ups only if there is space on an existing squad.

FEES: $15.00 for BPTRA and CRPC members, $20.00 for nonmembers.

SQUADS: 4 person squads based on entries. Target berms determined by match director.

JURY: Disputes will be decided by the Match Director after consultation with other experienced shooters if necessary.
